First Law of the Land: Sharing from the Great Dish

Learn from Indigenous knowledge keepers about the Dish With One Spoon wampum agreement—the first law of the territory in which our University of Toronto community is located.

Teachings by Richard W. Hill (Beaver Clan of the Tuscarora Nation) and Alan Ojilg Corbiere, Bne doodem (Ruffed Grouse clan) will be followed by a facilitated discussion.

All welcome
This event is open to the public - members of Indigenous communities are most welcome.

Please RSVP on Eventbrite, or to jacq.briggs@mail.utoronto.ca or chandra.murdoch@mail.utoronto.ca so we can estimate numbers.

Saturday, September 28, 2019
10:00 am–12:00 pm

Isabel Bader Theatre
Victoria University
93 Charles Street West
Toronto, Ontario
Isabel Bader Theatre is an accessible space.

University funding for this event has been generously provided by the Department of History, the Centre for Criminology and Sociolegal Studies, Woodsworth College, Victoria University, the Centre for Indigenous Studies, and the Office of Indigenous Initiatives.